

El primer nombramiento como árbitro en casos inversionista-Estado: logros y desafíos de cuatro mujeres árbitro y guía institucional *

Summary

 Please note that this summary of the panel was AI-generated and therefore has not been fully vetted for accuracy.

The panel discussion at Washington Arbitration Week focused on the appointment of first-time arbitrators in investment arbitration cases. Margarita Sanchez, a key organizer and advocate for diversity in arbitration, introduced the session. This year's event marked a significant increase in attendance, with at least 80 participants joining both online and in-person.

The panel emphasized the importance of various forms of diversity, including gender, special needs, intergenerational, and racial diversity, and highlighted the introduction of language diversity in arbitration. Notably, the International Court of Justice (ICJ) is incorporating Spanish into its public international law courses, reflecting the growing recognition of Spanish as a vital language in the field.

The discussion also included contributions from various speakers, showcasing a commitment to fostering an inclusive environment in arbitration practices.

Organic. Welcome to Washington arbitration

00:00:06

week. This is our panel

00:00:09

on first time. Arbitrator appointment

00:00:15

in investment arbitration case and

00:00:19

this is a panel that

00:00:22

that was an idea of 00:00:26

a margarita Sanchez who has

00:00:28

been a staunch supporter of 00:00:30

Washington arbitration week from the 00:00:33

get-go. So thank you Margarita.

00:00:35

And I know that has

00:00:36

also been an idea of 00:00:37

other of your peers. Part

00:00:42

of this panel is is 00:00:43

work. We're trying to do

00:00:45

something new in Washington arbitration

00:00:47

with this is our fourth

00:00:48

edition. And when we started

00:00:51

as you might know who 00:00:53

starred in covid environment, everything

00:00:57

was online of the beginning

00:00:59

and without any any shyness,

00:01:02

I would like to say

00:01:03

that this year has been 00:01:05

the biggest one we had

00:01:07

at least 80 people are 00:01:10

together online and in-person people

00:01:13
for each panel and and

00:01:16
and this panel in particular

00:01:18
is is as a as

00:01:19
a few components Washington navigation

00:01:23
with this is strongly committed

00:01:24
to every type of diversity

00:01:27
not only gender diversity which 00:01:29

is almost here but also 00:01:31

special needs diversity intergenerational diversity.

00:01:37
We believe that that it

00:01:39
is very important to 2.

00:01:42
To be in tune with

00:01:44
with a x and a

00:01:46
no-show racial diversity and so

00:01:49
on and so forth. So

00:01:50
that's one aspect and and

00:01:52
now we're adding language diversity

00:01:54
just a few facts. I

00:01:58
learned from my esteemed colleague

00:02:02
and friend at unique lady

00:02:03
who is here with us

00:02:04
that the icj famous course

00:02:09
off of international public international 00:02:11

law. It is introducing for 00:02:13

the first time Spanish as 00:02:15

part of its courses. So

00:02:17

the icj's doing this exit

00:02:21

was way ahead of time

00:02:23

because there's three languages which 00:02:25

are officials we have here

00:02:27

Deputy secretary-general Rosario Flores Spanish

00:02:32

French and English and and 00:02:34

of course Spanish is is 00:02:38

the second language is mostly 00:02:41

spoken in the US and 00:02:44

and and and some of 00:02:46

you might correct me. I

00:02:46

believe in the world and 00:02:48

ranks very high as well.

00:02:49

That being said I would

00:02:52

like to introduce Margarita and 00:02:54

now we'll switch to Spanish.

00:01:10
people are together online and

00:01:12
in-person people for each panel

00:01:14
and and and this panel

00:01:17
in particular is is as

00:01:19

a as a few components

00:01:21

Washington navigation with this is strongly committed to every type 00:01:26

00:01:23

of diversity not only gender

00:01:28

diversity which is almost here

00:01:30

but also special needs diversity

00:01:35

intergenerational diversity. We believe that 00:01:38

that it is very important

00:01:39

to 2. To be in 00:01:43

tune with with a x

00:01:45

and a no-show racial diversity

00:01:48

and so on and so

00:01:49

forth. So that's one aspect

00:01:51

and and now we're adding

00:01:53

language diversity just a few

00:01:56

facts. I learned from my 00:01:59

esteemed colleague and friend at 00:02:02

unique lady who is here

00:02:04

with us that the icj

00:02:06

famous course off of international public international law. It is 00:02:12

00:02:10

introducing for the first time

00:02:14

Spanish as part of its

00:02:16

courses. So the icj's doing

00:02:19

this exit was way ahead

00:02:22

of time because there's three 00:02:24

languages which are officials we 00:02:27

have here Deputy secretary-general Rosario

00:02:30

Flores Spanish French and English

00:02:33

and and of course Spanish

00:02:37

is is the second language

00:02:39

is mostly spoken in the 00:02:42

US and and and and 00:02:45

some of you might correct

00:02:46

me. I believe in the 00:02:47

world and ranks very high

00:02:48

as well. That being said

00:02:51

I would like to introduce

00:02:52

Margarita and now we'll switch

00:02:54

to Spanish. You can buy
